

The new fax rules impede the work of our Association to maintain a viable relationship with our membership. We use fax to notify members of volunteer opportunities, educational offerings and registration for events. The rules should not include an established business/membership partnership.